The northeast breeze was sufficiently strong to test thoroughly the speed of the challenger, which had a good lead when the yacht crossed the start line. ### TEN MARKSMEN MAKE NICE TRAPSHOT SCORES

Atlanta Shooters Participate in Afternoon Sport—First Correspondence Match Held Here.

The first correspondence match in which the West End Gun Club has participated was shot yesterday afternoon, with a nice percentage for the ten high men. Six men tied on forty, and it will be decided by lot whose names are reported.
Walter Huff and John E. Avery, of Atlanta, were out-of-town guests, and they both turned in good scores. Mr. Avery will be here and help in the Fourth of July tournament.
John E. Avery had his class at his mercy, and was high amateur of the evening.

Colonel James J. Pollard was out for the first time this season. He surprised himself by dropping five out of his first six birds, but all was not lost for he pulled himself together and turned in a score, which topped eighteen men some of whom are pretty clever target shots.

That club baseball game Friday told on Hotchkiss, Jr. he landing seven birds on Wednesday's score.
Archer Anderson, Jr., and Thomas W. Purcell are both shooting at a nice clip this month.
